Kaiser Will Abdicate

Crown Prince Renounces His Claim to Throne

London, Nov. 9—Official Berlin wireless dispatch states that the Kaiser has decided to abdicate his throne. The Crown Prince will also renounce all claim to the throne.

Amsterdam, Nov. 9—Emperor William, of Germany, has declined to accede to the demands that he abdicate, says a German wireless dispatch.

To the ultimatum of the Socialists, the Emperor replied, through Minister of the Interior Dries, that he refused to abdicate voluntarily, on the ground that he could not, at the moment of peace, undertake the terrible responsibility of handing over Germany to the Entente and delivering up the country to anarchy.

Basel, Switzerland, Nov. 9—A republic was proclaimed in Bavaria at meeting yesterday, says a telegram from Munich under today's date.

The abdication of Emperor William and the renunciation of the throne by Crown Prince Frederick William, before noon today, were demanded in an ultimatum sent by the Managing Committee of the German Socialist party at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon to Prince Maximilian, of Baden, the Imperial Chancellor, according to the Correspondence Socialista, the official organ of the Socialist party of Germany.

The Managing Committee of the Socialist party considered the entire political situation and its decisions were embodied in the ultimatum which Philip Scheidemann, Socialist member of the German Cabinet without portfolio, sent to Chancellor Maximilian.

These decisions were:
1. The right of public assembly.
2. The military and police must be ordered to exercise great reserve.
3. The immediate transformation of the Prussian Government in conformity with the views of the majority in the Reichstag.

4. Greater Socialist influence in the Reichstag.
5. The abdication of Emperor William and the renunciation of the throne by the Crown Prince.

The Imperial Chancellor was asked to reply before noon today, accepting the conditions. Otherwise the Socialists declared they would withdraw from the Government.

MAY SUSPEND FURTHER DRAFT

Washington, November 9.—Provost Marshal General Crowder called into conference Friday the heads of all sections of his office to discuss possible suspension of the November draft calls, under which more than 300,000 men have been ordered to army camps.

While General Crowder would not discuss what recommendations he might make to the General Staff, it is known that his advisers will advocate warmly withdrawal of the November call, at least if the Germans accept the American and allied armistice terms before the movement to camps begins.

With 4,000,000 men already under arms overseas and at home, the feeling is growing that no more will be needed, even though it may be a long time before American forces can be recalled from France and some additional men may be sent over.

Beginning Monday 252,000 men were ordered to proceed to camp before November 15, including suspended calls, replaced in force. Whether that flow can be stopped depends entirely upon the armistice progress, and the General Staff's view of Germany's power of future resistance.

WAR WILL NOT END RED CROSS WORK

Washington, Nov. 9.—Relaxation of effort by American Red Cross chapters should not be permitted "until peace is really obtained," says a message sent today by the War Council to each of the 3,857 organizations.

"But even with peace," said the message, "let no one suppose that the work of the Red Cross is finished."

"The cessation of war will reveal a picture of misery such as the world has never seen before, especially in many countries which cannot help themselves.

72 HOURS GRACE IS GRANTED TO GERMANY

The terms of the entente allies under which Germany may secure an armistice have been handed to the German delegates at French headquarters at a little village in the department of the Aisne, and a German courier now is speeding back to Spa German headquarters, Belgium, with the document.

Seventy-two hours—or until Monday morning—have been given the Germans to accept or reject the stipulations.

Emperor William is said to be at the Spa awaiting the arrival of the courier with the momentous conditions. The German delegates, it is said, endeavored to secure an immediate suspension of hostilities, but Marshal Foch refused to acquiesce.

Notwithstanding the fact that the abdication of Emperor William is generally believed to be conditional upon any terms of an armistice and the further fact that the majority parties in Germany have demanded that he quit the throne and that the crown prince renounce his right to succession, the emperor has refused to retire.

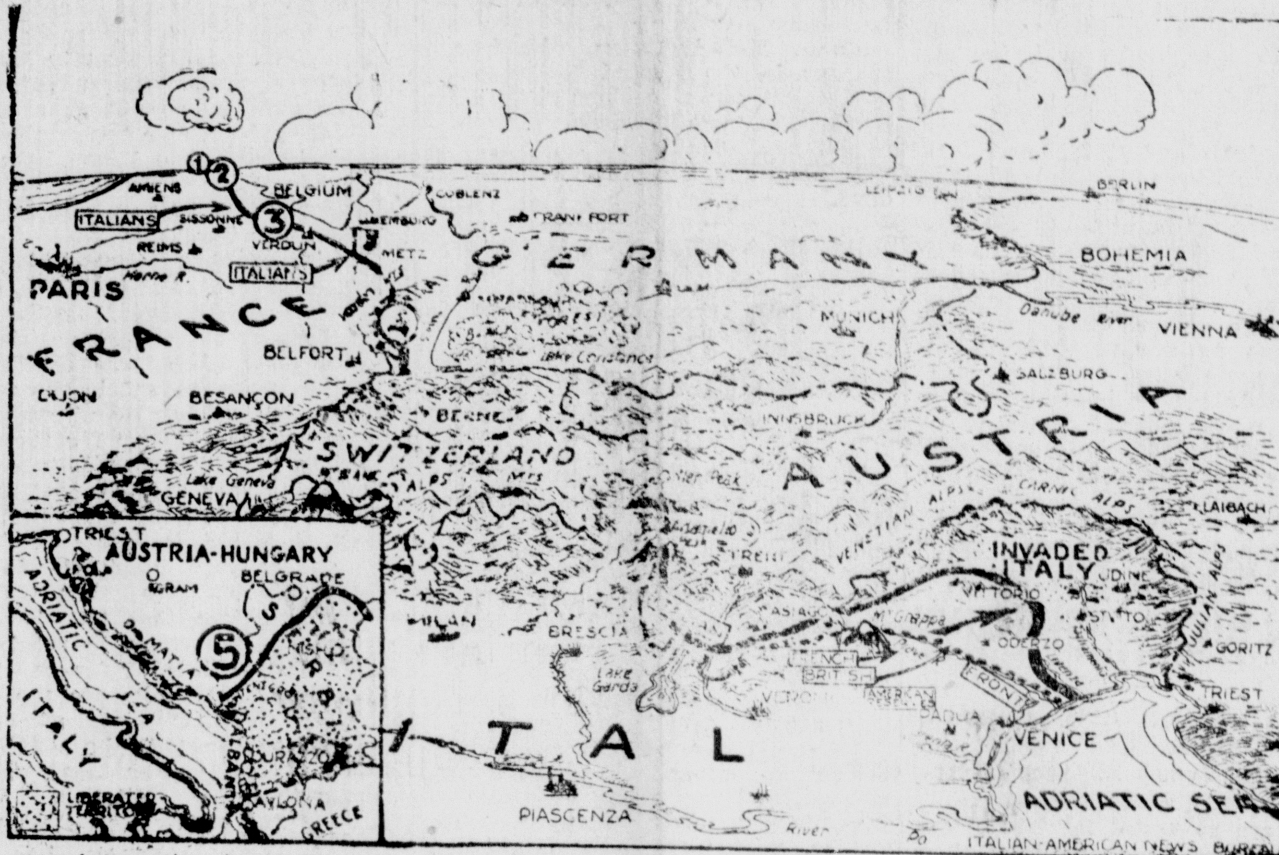

Meanwhile throughout Germany revolt is in the air and the red flag is flying.

A renouveau has been formed in Bavaria and in addition to Kiel, Hamburg and Schleswig, Bremen is in turmoil.

Prince Henry of Prussia, commander in chief of the German fleet, the greater part of which is said to be in revolt, is thought to have fled to Schleswig.

THIRTY SIX HOURS RAIN THREATEN FLOODS
Dallas, Texas, November 9.—A thirty-six-hour rain threatens damage from floods in North Central Texas. Official flood warnings were issued. The Trinity and Brazos Rivers, with their tributaries, have reached flood stage. Thousands of acres of bottom land are inundated between Ft. Worth and Handley and in the Trinity bottoms between Ft. Worth and Trinidad, and the crest of the flood has not yet been reached.

PENDING ARMISTICE DOES NOT STEM THE ADVANCING ALLIED ARMIES TEN BILLIONS ARE NEEDED BY FRANCE

PENDING ARMISTICE DOES

Paris, Nov. 9.—The French resumed their advance on the whole front this morning, it was announced by the war office.

"During the night there was artillery and much gun activity at several points on the front," the communique said.

"This morning, our troops again started their march forward on the whole line."

London, Nov. 9.—The allies are continuing their liberation of French and Belgian soil, while Marshal Foch awaits the answer of the German high command at Spa to his terms for an armistice.

Latest official reports showed French, British, Belgian, Italian and American troops attacking along a front of about 200 miles, from the vicinity of Ghent to the Verdun region. Important new gains have been made on a wide stretch of this line. In addition, the enemy is reported to be undertaking a great retreat on the Metz front. Details of any American advance in that region have not been received.

The French and Americans now hold the line of the Meuse from Mezieres southward. The great fortress cities of Maubeuge and Hirson are practically within the grasp of the British and French. The British have taken western portion of Tournai. Field Marshal Haig announced that his armies have taken 18,000 prisoners, and several hundred guns since Nov. 1.

French troops have crossed the Scheldt on a wide front south of Audenarde.

In the Balkans, the Serbs have defeated the Germans along the Danube and Save, and have crossed those rivers into Hungarian territory. They also have taken up the march to Sarajevo.

New York, November 9.—An appeal to America to assist France in her reconstruction—with men, money, materials and ships—was made yesterday by Andre Tardieu, General Commissioner for France-American War Affairs.

Declaring that the war has reduced by 2,500,000 the effective population of the republic, that 350,000 homes have been destroyed; that agriculture, commerce and industry in the invaded regions virtually have been wiped out; that French shipping and foreign trade have been reduced almost to nonexistence, Mr. Tardieu said that approximately 50,000,000,000 francs ($10,000,000,000) will be required to finance the process of restoration.

STATE DEPARTMENT WILL BE ON ALERT

Washington, Nov. 9.—President Wilson will personally inform America either of the end or the continuation of the war.

As soon as the news, whatever it may be, is received by the officials of the United States, it will be made public by the president. This was announced officially at the White House today.

The president had in mind the doubt that might exist in the minds of some people, because of the erroneous report of the end of the war, which was cable to this country on Thursday.

Meantime, there will be full official publicity here concerning the various steps of the next 72 hours, the most momentous period in history.

The latest word received by the state department is that the German envoys must give a categorical "yes" or "no" to the armistice terms of the allies and the United States by 11 o'clock Monday morning, Paris time. They may do so before then, but it is not expected before Sunday night at the earliest, and as a result, the state department will await constantly any word of their action.

TROTSKY RESIGNS TROOPS MARCH ON ST. PETERSBURG

Twelve thousand counter revolutionists from Peking, are reported to be marching on Petrograd.

WHOLESALE FINE FOR PROFITEERING

Columbus, Nov. 9.—Four Columbus grocers were penalized $1,100, which they will pay to the United War Work Fund, by the food administration. Excessive margins of profit were charged, although Croxton says carelessness rather than willful profiteering was disclosed. The firms and fines assessed are:
George Robb and Son Company, $3,500.
O. W. Bobb and Company, $1,500.
Money-Hammond, $1,500.
C. C. Higgins, $600.

SAYS ARMISTICE DOES NOT MEAN END OF WAR

Camp Funston, Kan., Nov. 9.—Major General Leonard Wood today posted the following appeal to men of the Tenth Division:
"Even if an armistice is signed it does not mean the end of the war. It simply means that the terms of peace will be discussed. They may or may not be agreed upon. The work and training of the division will go on with the same energy and spirit as herebefore."
"There is nothing in the present situation which justifies a change of procedure on our part, and as soldiers it is our duty to carry on without reference to an armistice until we receive instructions to the contrary."

SAYS GERMAN PEOPLE WIN GREAT VICTORY

London, November 9.—Prince Maximilian of Baden, the Imperial German chancellor, has resigned, according to a German wireless dispatch picked up here tonight.

The wireless says that Prince Max tendered his resignation in view of the altered parliamentary situation, but that acceptance of it is still outstanding.

Prince Max in an appeal to "Germans abroad," today said:
"Do not abandon your trust in the German people. The victory for which many hoped has not been granted us.

"But the German people have won a great victory. It has conquered itself and its belief in the justice of might!"

Copenhagen, Nov. 9.—The workmen's and soldiers' council has blocked the Kial canal by throwing warships lengthwise across it, according to dispatches received here today. The revolutionists are reported to dominate completely Hamburg, Cuxhaven and Lubeck.

London, Nov. 9.—Practically all of Germany is reported to be seething with revolt.

Dispatches received here today indicated that important cities in all parts of the empire are in the hands of the revolutionists.

Following reports that the council of workmen and peasants in Munich had declared Bavaria a republic, it was announced that the revolutionists are believed to have seized Dresden, capital of Saxony. A dispatch from Stuttgart, capital of Wurtemberg, said the cabinet of that state had resigned.

Workmen's and Soldiers' soviets are reported now to control Lockstadt, Eckernforde, and Brunswick. Rioting is reported in Essen, seat of the great Krupp gun works.

Other important cities said to be held by the revolutionists are Hamburg, Kiel, Bremen, Tilsit, Schwerin, Bremerhaven, Wilhelmshaven and Flensburg.

Practically the entire German navy, with the possible exception of the third squadron, has been taken over by revolting sailors.

A wireless dispatch from Berlin says that Chancellor Maximilian "in view of the altered parliamentary situation" has sent in his resignation.

Dresden, a city of five hundred thousand, is located 100 miles south of Berlin. Munich, also a city of half a million, is nearly 250 miles west of Vienna. Stuttgart is about 120 miles northwest of Munich. It has a population of 200,000. Brunswick is 35 miles southeast of Hanover. Its population is 130,000. Essen is 20 miles north of Düsseldorf. It has a population of 200,000. Eckernforde is 20 miles southeast of Schwerin.

ENTER LINES BLIND-FOLDED AND DEJECTED

Paris, Nov. 9.—The German armistice delegates, during their interviews with Marshal Foch, appeared greatly dejected.

They arrived at the French lines during a drenching rain Thursday night. After their papers were examined they were blindfolded and taken to a designated point where they spent the night.

After the conference Friday the delegates asked permission to send wireless reports of the proceedings to their government and the German high command. When Foch replied that they must use the French wireless, they changed their request to permission to use a courier.

This was granted. The courier left for German headquarters at Spa, and the German command was notified by French wireless of the coming.

SENATE WILL BE REPUBLICAN

Washington, Nov. 9.—With almost complete returns from Tuesday elections indicating the senate will be Republican, by a majority of two, the so-called progressives in the upper branch will hold the balance power when the senate convenes next March.

According to indications today there will be 49 senators on the Republican side and 47 on the Democratic side.

Any one progressive vote swinging to the side of the Democrats will therefore command a majority for the majority with Vice President Coolidge's vote.

ADMINISTRATOR MODIFIES BAN

Washington, Nov. 9.—Partial relaxation of the restrictions against the use of fuel-generated light, effective next Monday, was announced Friday night by Fuel Administrator Garfield.

Store and shop windows may remain lighted when the establishments are open, and are required to be dark on "lightless nights" only if the places are closed. The order applies to eastern states and Michigan and Ohio.

In Michigan and Ohio, and any other states where the federal fuel administration so directs, the use of such light must be absolutely discontinued on Mondays and Tuesdays.

Over the rest of the country State Fuel Administrators are given full discretion to enforce or extend such restrictions as are provided in the present regulations.

Dr. Garfield said improvement in the east in the general supply of bituminous and steam anthracite coal had made the change in that section possible.

BOY SCOUTS LINE UP FOR WAR WORK DRIVE

Boy scouts of Ohio, thousands strong, have received mobilization orders from James E. West of New York, national Scout executive.

They are to enroll in the Victory Boys' division of the United War Work Campaign and do their share the week of Nov. 11 to 18 in raising $250,000,000 to provide comfort and recreation for America's fighting men through these seven organizations: The Y. M. C. A., Y. W. C. A., National Catholic War Council, Jewish Welfare Board, American Library Association, War Camp Community Service and Salvation Army.

Teams among Scout troops throughout Ohio will be formed to earn and give to the campaign, a pledge of $5 being figured to provide a man overseas with the comforts of all these organizations for five weeks. Executive West predicts complete enrollment of all Scouts in the United States. The trained executive force of the Boy Scout organization will have charge of this part of the boys' drive and guide the boys in making only those pledges that they can fulfill.

Carrying of dispatches and work of assisting in the business of the campaign will be undertaken by local troops of Scouts in uniform. Each local organization in Ohio has been urged by their national leader to put themselves at once at the disposal of the United War Work Campaign of their vicinity.

In the call upon Boy Scouts of Ohio to put the United War Work Campaign "over the top" the appeal is made that even though the Huns should lay down arms tomorrow, it will be months before the last of our American soldiers can get transportation home. More than two millions of fighters, "all dressed up and nowhere to go" will be on foreign soil, and their needs will be greater even than when every nerve and muscle was busy in meeting the foe. The work of these seven organizations will be doubly important then, according to the appeal from national headquarters to Scout leaders in Ohio, and now more than ever boy power is needed behind man power, these experts say.

TIME TO SELECT SEED CORN FOR NEXT YEAR

Have you picked out your seed corn yet? If not, now is the time to get busy and save seed for next year's planting.

A prominent farmer remarked the other day that never again would he wait until husking time to select his seed corn. "It is more trouble to select seed at husking time and takes more effort than to select it in the field before cutting," he said. "That is undoubtedly true." And those who have picked out their seed in the field this year will undoubtedly keep on doing so year after year.

Keep the mice and rats from the seed corn. They will ruin it if allowed to eat away the kernels.

Seed corn should now be placed in a room where it is dry and where there is a uniform temperature to prevent freezing. Greene county should be well supplied with seed corn next year.

Then and Now.
"Thirty years ago," said the man who had traveled to the end of the earth and most of the way back, "I started out, alone, unpaid, without friends to help me along with the intention of making the world pay me the living that it owes me. My only allies were a dollar bill and a determination to make a million more. Today (and he threw out his chest proudly) I still have the determination and day cents in change."

YOUNG SEAMAN WHO DIED IN ACCIDENT, IS LAID TO REST

The funeral services for the late Wallace Cooper Anderson, of Cedarville, were held at the Second U. P. Church, Friday afternoon.

Rev. J. H. McMichael of Cedarville, former pastor of Mr. Anderson, was in charge of the services, assisted by Dr. Carson of this city, and Dr. W. R. McChesney, president of Cedarville college, who spoke about the college life of the young man.

There were many beautiful floral tributes from friends and relatives. The pall bearers were all cousins of Mr. Anderson. They were: William Anderson, Walker Taylor, James Chesnut, Otis Tannehill, Delmer Jobe and Fred Williamson. A quartet composed of Mrs. Graham Bryson, Mrs. Charles Proudfoot, Mr. Harvey Collins and Mr. John McVey sang "The Lord Is My Shepherd" and "The Giveth His Beloved Sleep."

Burial was made in Woodland cemetery.

Young Mr. Anderson, who was a seaman in the United States navy, lost his life in an accident at the Pensacola, Fla. naval training station, 2 weeks ago. He was aged just 20 years, eight months and twenty-three days.

CHILD STRUCK BY AUTO TRUCK, NOT SERIOUSLY HURT

While playing about on the sidewalk and street, little Madeline Horn, daughter of Superintendent and Mrs. Horn of the Xenia workhouse, was knocked down by a big grocery truck from Dayton in front of the workhouse on Friday morning. At first, the injuries were thought to be serious, but today she seems much better and it is thought only her left arm is broken.

The child is aged ten. The truck was headed toward Dayton, and was going up grade, so that it was easily stopped. The driver, who was badly frightened, said that he believed nothing could have saved the child had the truck been going down the hill. The driver was exonerated from blame, as the child darted across the street directly in front of the car.

DINNER PARTY GIVEN

Bryson, Mrs. Elmer Wadde, Mrs. George Oglesbee, Mrs. Frank Harner, Mrs. Lester Harner, Mrs. Charles Cooley, Miss Cooley, Mrs. Emory Beal, Mrs. Geo. McKee, Mrs. R. C. Ledbetter, Mrs. J. H. ## FREED FROM THE PHYSIC HABIT

Says her constipation ended and stomach trouble left. Tells how.

"I had stomach trouble and constipation very bad for a long time. Tried everything, but kept getting worse. I could hardly eat anything and my bowels wouldn't move unless I took a physic every day. I have to support myself and two children, yet I was not able to work."

"The first bottle of Milk's Emulsion did wonders for me, and I have continued its use until now I feel fine and can work every day. I have a good appetite, my stomach trouble has left me, and my bowels are as regular as clock work."

Mrs. Mary Widner, 103 S. Court St., Sioux City, Iowa.

Mrs. Widner found out what all sufferers should know—that pills, salts and physics do not end constipation, but usually make it worse. Milk's Emulsion is a pleasant, nutritive food and a correct medicine. It restores healthy, natural bowel action, doing away with all need of pills and physics. It promotes appetite and quickly puts the digestive organs in shape to assimilate food. As a builder of flesh and strength, Milk's Emulsion is strongly recommended to run-down nervous people, and it has produced amazing results in many cases of asthma, chronic bronchitis, and tuberculosis of the lungs. Chronic stomach trouble and constipation are promptly relieved—usually in one day.

This is the only solid emulsion made, and so palatable that it is eaten with a spoon like ice cream. A truly wonderful medicine for weak, sickly children.

No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try Milk's Emulsion under this guarantee—Take six bottles home with you, use it according to directions and if not satisfied with the results, your money will be promptly refunded. Price, 60c and $1.20 per bottle. The Milk's Emulsion Co., Terre Haute, Ind. Sold and guaranteed by Sayre & Hemphill.

CHILDREN TO SHARE GIFTS WITH SOLDIERS

John W. Riley, of Troy, a member of the G. A. R. Christmas Committee for the O. S. and S. O. Home, tells of an incident of the reason the G. A. R. and W. R. C. changed their plan of Christmas gifts to the Home children, in a letter from which the following is taken:

Last year these two organizations presented the children books, periodicals and magazines of their own choosing, the bill for which was $352. The W. R. C. and other auxiliary societies made presents to the children, total of which was well nigh $1,500. The children look forward for months to Christmas. The various committees leave their own homes these joyous times to give cheer to these orphans.

This year, the program will be changed somewhat, and I know every reader of this article will be deeply interested in what happened, all brought about by the request of a little twelve year old girl in cottage No. 1, Ada Spencer, (whose father, an old soldier, is dead, went to Mrs. Elton, wife of the superintendent, whom all the children regard as a mother and deeply love, and asking that the money which would have been expended in gifts for her this Christmas be given the Red Cross, and no present be given her.

The Christmas Committee, composed of G. A. R. and S. W. V., six in number, from all over Ohio, knowing that these children were desirous of helping to win the war, decided to give the books (except in the case of the smaller children) and magazines chosen by the children for their gift; direct to the thirty-two cottages, and after being read they be sent to the soldiers as gifts from the children of the O. S. and S. O. Home at Xenia. The children are delighted with this arrangement and are going to realize as never before that "it is more blessed to give than to receive"—a lesson they will never forget. These magazines and books are the finest literature in America, and after starting they will monthly be sent to the soldiers, fresh, up-to-date reading. Among these lists will be some two hundred and ninety first-class magazines, the cheerful donations of these children who will stand at the forefront of any organization, I doubt not. Truly it can be said as was said by one of old, "And a little child shall lead them." In closing I wish to add, this home was never more useful nor better managed than by the present superintendent and his noble wife, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Elton, backed up as they are by an able board of trustees.

Unlike Topsy— Swift & Company Has Not "Jest Grown"

Swift & Company, in fifty years of well ordered growth, has become one of the great national services because it has learned to do something for the American people which they needed to have done for them, in the way in which they preferred to have it done.

It has met each successive demand, in the changing conditions of national life, by getting good meat to increasing millions effectively, efficiently, economically, and expeditiously.

The Swift & Company packing plants, refrigerator cars, car routes, branch houses, organization, and personnel of today are the practical solutions, born of practical experience, to the food problems of a half a century.

Because of all of these elements working in correlation and unison, Swift & Company is able to supply more and better meat to more people than would have been possible otherwise, at a net profit per pound of meat so low (a fraction of a cent) that the consumer price is practically unaffected.

Strip away any portion of this vast, smooth-running human machine, and you make a large part of the meat supply uncertain, lose the benefit of half a century of fruitful experience, and scatter the intelligent energies of men who have devoted a life work toward meeting the needs of a nation in one vital field.

The booklet of preceding chapters in this story of the packing industry will be mailed on request to Swift & Company, Union Stock Yards, Chicago, Illinois.

SHALL THIS GLORY BE OURS?

Shall we receive at the hands of Father Ohio the bronze tablet that shows this county has fully met the sacred obligation imposed upon its people to support our lines in France?

Shall we show the rest of Ohio what we all know---that man for man there is no more patriotic community in all the country than the one right here?

TIME FOR YOUR ACTION!

There is time enough, if each of us gets into service, to buy the necessary number of War Savings Stamps to exceed our full quota. There is money enough and to spare as soon as our people see that we must act promptly.

Then let us pull together for the glory of the Flag and the honor of our county, and bring home to our Court House the handsome bronze tablet which will show to all posterity that we did our duty by the men who fought for us.

Put It Up To Yourself What Remains to Be Done

Our quota calls for $20 from each man, woman and child in the county, as estimated by the Census Bureau. That means that we shall buy $180,000 in War Savings Stamps before December 31.

We have sold up to the present time $420,000, leaving $180,000 to be sold—a quota of $6.25 for every person in the county. Many of us can easily buy that small amount every week to the end of the year. Some of us cannot do so well, so more of us must do better.

As a good citizen, your patriotism calls upon you to help finance this war; as a resident of this county, you do not want it alone of all Ohio counties to be regarded as neglectful in war work. Then get to work. Buy all you can; see that every one of your friends buys all that he or she can. Make yourself an emergency salesman for the good of the county.

Don't let the patriots of this county be disappointed by a poor showing.

"UNITED WAR WORK" CAMPAIGN.

The present war is being fought on a vastly larger scale than any previous war in history. The belligerents are using more powerful and more deadly weapons than were ever used before. The armies arrayed against each other are larger than were ever brought together before. Greater quantities of materials of all kinds are being used and more money is being spent than in any previous conflict.

Despite all this, however, fatalities, sufferings and hardships among the fighting men are comparatively slight, considering the enormity of the work being accomplished, due to special measures that have been taken to protect them from the numerous dangers that surround them on every hand.

Every one is more or less familiar with the elaborate precautions taken by the medical authorities to protect the health of men in the armies and navies, and to care for those who are wounded in the line of duty.

Likewise, every one now knows something of the great work that is being done to protect and promote the moral health of the men; to provide them with various comforts and advantages to which they are accustomed at home, but which would inevitably be denied them as fighters under conditions that have obtained in most previous wars.

Wherever our boys may be, whether in camps at home, in camps in Europe, or in the most dangerous section of the war zone, honest, earnest efforts are being constantly put forth to safeguard them physically, mentally, morally and spiritually; to provide for them all possible comforts and conveniences—writing materials, books to read, musical instruments, games and facilities for recreation and entertainment; also opportunities to attend religious services.

In strange lands, among strange people, they are aided in finding comfortable, safe quarters and wholesome food at reasonable prices. At home camp hostess houses, information bureaus and other helps are provided for the soldiers and the relatives and friends who may go to visit them.

These important, valuable services are rendered by seven affiliated, co-operating agencies, operating under an executive order of the President of the United States as follows: the Young Men's Christian Association, the Young Women's Christian Association, the Knights of Columbus, the Jewish Welfare Board, the War Camp Community Service, the American Library Association and the Salvation Army. The work of these associations is governed by a war council.

To carry on this work millions of dollars are required. Funds previously contributed have been exhausted and it is now desired to obtain the sum of $170,500,000, the largest free will offering ever asked of any people in order that there may be no slackening or stopping of these efforts.

The campaign is to begin next Monday, Nov. 11th and continue for one week. Every patriotic American will contribute gladly and willingly, knowing that in so doing he is materially strengthening America's fighting arm and making military life easier for our brave boys either at home or abroad. Contributions are to be made to the seven societies as a unit, to be divided among them as per a schedule previously arranged. About sixty per cent of the money is to go to the Y. M. C. A.

Nothing so far in this great crisis of our National affairs has been presented that more deserves the prayerful consideration of every patriotic man and woman than this most deserving campaign. Make up your mind before hand the amount that it is your duty to give and gladly contribute, keeping the solicitors waiting as short time as possible. Put your heart in the work.

No One to Copy.

Charley had twin cousins of his own age. The twins looked much alike and were identical in every way. Charley's mother said to him, "Why, Charley, look how nice your cousins look and how dirty you are!" Whereupon he answered: "Well, mother, they just need to look at each other to see how they look and I have no one to look at to see if I look right."

AIRPLANE ACTIVITIES SAVOR OF FAIRYLAND.

The crush of war news which is fraught with all the tragedies of nations going to the scrap-heap blinds the eye to side issues that are of an illuminating and almost stunning character. For nothing could be more extraordinary than the daily achievement of airplanes, both in the war zones and over here in peace in the mail service. It is not only that Cabinet ministers fly from England to France to attend grave conferences, but a few days ago the French minister to Holland and the naval attaché went to their posts in the Netherlands via the air route over Belgium and accomplished in a few hours a journey that takes nearly a fortnight owing to the war conditions. But even more thrilling in all its contrasts is the experience of Dr. John H. Finley, New York State Commissioner of Education, who has just returned from six months with the Red Cross in Palestine. He points out the picturesque fact that: "I went to Palestine from Egypt in two hours by airplane, a journey that took the children of Israel forty years." These things savor of a fairyland in which science is omnipotent and all nature at the control of man, even subject to his whims. But, as epoch-making as they are, they are really nothing but routine items of the casual news of the day and therein lies the marvel.

"THE WIFE"

BY JANE PHELPS

MRS. CLAYBORNE GRACIOUSLY ACCEPTS MR. MANDEL'S INVITATION.

CHAPTER LXXXIV.

Ruth hovered over her aunt solicitously as she removed her wraps; then proudly led the way to the dining room. Mrs. Clayborne did not restrain an exclamation of pleased surprise and delight as she saw the artistic room with the hangings of stuff given Ruth by her employer; the dainty table appointments, and all, came in for their share of admiration.

Ruth was in the "seventh heaven." "Don't praise her too much, Mrs. Clayborne. You'll make her impossible to live with, if you do," Brian remarked facetiously, rather pleased at the way he had been greeted by this wealthy aunt of Ruth's.

He always had felt a smouldering sort of anger at Mrs. Clayborne, not only because of her objection to him, but because she had done so little for Ruth, who was the only relative she had, and so, at least he figured it that way, entitled to be given a part of what she would ultimately have.

He had known that when Ruth married him. But had he known that, when Mrs. Clayborne found out he was not earning enough to support Ruth without her working, she had changed her will which had left everything unreservedly to Ruth, and had put the money IN TRUST for Ruth for the length of time they lived together, he might not have felt so elated by her suavity. Mrs. Clayborne had a fixed impression that Ruth would not be long contented as the wife of a poor man, so had arranged her matters with that in view.

The dinner was one of Rachel's masterpieces in the culinary line.

"I show die missis dat we uns kin cook in New York!" she had said to Ruth when told to get the very best dinner she possibly could.

"I see Rachel still knows how to cook," Mrs. Clayborne said, passing her plate for an extra helping.

"Indeed she does! I think she cooks better every day," Ruth replied. "I don't know how I ever lived without her, the dear old soul. Although we had a very good woman before she came. Brian was afraid I would be sorry I let Crawford go. He thought perhaps Rachel would be lonely here, all alone. But she hasn't complained at all."

"She loves you very dearly, Ruth. I hope you will always take care of her. I should, had she remained on the plantation."

"Of course we will! You need never worry about her as long as we have a roof over our heads." Then blushed as she thought perhaps her aunt might think the roof a dubious prospect for always.

All the next day Ruth and her aunt visited. They did not go out at all. Ruth told of her work, her employer, his kindness; and Mrs. Clayborne listened without remark. Then Ruth told of Brian. His ambition to learn typing so that he could save and be more independent at the same time, was enlarged upon. His thoughtfulness. She quoted his sending the flowers. The day was all too short for their confidences.

After dinner they went to the theater. The seats were in the fifth row. "Just the right distance from the stage for aunt," Ruth thought complacently.

Then, Sunday, they had another happy day. They attended church in the morning; and in the afternoon went for a walk. After dinner Mr. and Mrs. Roberts came in to pay their respects to Mrs. Clayborne; and she seemed to approve of them, which delighted Ruth.

"A very refined, pleasant couple," Mrs. Clayborne had remarked. Ruth was about to tell her aunt that Clara Roberts did all her own work—so Kenyon could get along, but caught herself in time. Why bring up a subject that would cause her aunt to say that she, too, might have remained at home, and so have helped Brian?

Monday, Ruth went to work in the morning, as planned. Her aunt had said nothing when she explained. In the afternoon they did some shopping. Brian came up for dinner, but excused himself immediately afterward because of his lesson. If Ruth had hoped he would remain at home for that one evening, she did not let it be seen; and when he returned before ten o'clock she reproached herself for having the thought.

The next day her aunt promised to meet Ruth near the shop. Ruth had said nothing of Mr. Mandel's invitation. If it came about unexpectedly, her aunt would be more likely to accept. Ruth joined her at the appointed place, then, their errand accomplished, she said:

"Will you go to the shop with me, Aunt Louise? I should love to have you see the place."

"I'll go!" the answer was grim. Ruth introduced her to Arthur Mandel, who was most deferential. He showed them over the shop, taking especial pains to point out the most expensive and exquisite objects as being of Ruth's selection. He then proffered his request that they lunch with him. Mrs. Clayborne at once accepted most graciously.

"He's in love with Ruth! I'll put

HELP PUSH FARM BUREAU FOR COUNTY

Regardless of the exact time when the war ends our farms must go on producing just the same. Even if peace comes at once we may be called upon to help feed one hundred and fifty million more people than we are today.

The importance of our farmers getting together with their shoulders to the wheel of production is therefore urgent, be it war or peace.

The Farm Bureau offers a place for farmers to get and pull together. And in most counties they are doing it. At the present time nearly every county in Ohio has a Farm Bureau, and the membership in County Farm Bureaus of the state runs into thousands.

Get behind the Greene County Farm Bureau during Thanksgiving week and help push this cause along.

End play in the crank shaft is apt to first be noticed when the car is throttled down around five miles an hour, when so called bucking will take place, accompanied by knocking. If the play is excessive, the knocking will be heard as the speed increases. Examine the tires frequently. Small cuts should be thoroughly cleaned with gasoline and painted with a thin coat of rubber cement. When the cement has dried, plug the cut with gum, allowing it to dry for a short time.

I Owe My Life to PERUNA

Mr. McKinley's letter brings cheer to all who may be sufferers as he was. Read it:

"I can honestly say that I owe my life to Peruna. After some of the best doctors in the country gave me up and told me I could not live another month, Peruna saved me. Travelling from town to town, throughout the country and having to go into all kinds of badly heated stores and buildings, sometimes standing up for hours at a time while playing my trade as auctioneer. It is only natural that I had colds frequently; so when this would occur I paid little attention to it, until last December when I contracted a severe case, which through neglect on my part settled on my lungs. When almost too late, I began doctoring, but, without avail, until I heard of Peruna. It cured me; so I cannot praise it too highly."

Can an Old Battery be Repaired?

That depends:

- on how old it is
- on how well you've taken care of it
- on how soon you let the Willard expert locate the trouble and correct the fault.

Nobody can repair a battery until he finds the trouble, and nobody can correct a big fault as easily as he can a little one.

CHRISTMAS BOXES FOR WAR WORKERS

Instructions have just been received from Washington that make it possible to send Christmas parcels to nurses and to individuals serving with the Red Cross, Y. M. C. A., K. of C. and similar organizations in the Army of the Allies. The plan as outlined, in general, is the same as the plan under which Christmas cartons are now being sent to soldiers in the American Expeditionary Forces.

Note the following points:

1. Everyone wishing to send a parcel to individuals in the above classes, must make an application in the following form:

"The undersigned hereby makes application to forward to a Christmas Package. The undersigned hereby represents and declares that he or she is the nearest living relative in the United States of the proposed recipient, and that the applicant in the calendar year 1918, has not made or will not make any other Christmas shipment to the above named consignee."

The application is presented to the Red Cross Chapter, approved by the Chapter Official, marked "Approved" Chapter, A. R. C., and returned with an approved carton to the applicant.

2. The approved application takes the place of the Christmas parcel label from overseas.

3. Applications returned with filled cartons should be filed by Chapter.

4. Each parcel must be plainly addressed by the sender with name and address of the consignee.

5. Name and address of the sender must be written on the parcel.

6. Sufficient postage must be affixed to carry the parcel to its ultimate destination.

7. Only one parcel to an individual. Two or more wishing to send presents to the same individual should send a combination Christmas box. The above plan is the result of co-operation between the War and Post Office Department and War Trade Board.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Get at the Cause and Remove It

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, act gently on the bowels and positively do the work.

People afflicted with "bad breath" find quick relief through Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The pleasant, sugar-coated tablets are taken for bad breath by all who know them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act gently but firmly on the bowels and liver, stimulating them to natural action, clearing the blood and gently purifying the entire system. They do that which dangerous calomel does without any of the bad after effects.

All the benefits of nasty, sickening, griping cathartics are derived from Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets without griping, pain or any disagreeable effects.

Dr. F. M. Edwards discovered the formula after seventeen years of practice among patients afflicted with bowel and liver complaint, with the attendant bad breath.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are purely a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color. Take one or two every night for a week and note the effect. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

On account of the epidemic and consequent ban on all public assemblies, there has arisen anxiety in the minds of some concerning the course.

Because the condition was general, the Bureau was compelled to re-route the attractions. Now we seem somewhat settled and are able to announce that all the numbers announced will be given. The great musical number promised as the opening one for Oct. 20, will, under the new plan come March 11th, closing the course. The course will open December 11th, with Noah Beilharz, the impersonator and entertainer. Look for further announcement of this number.

Each number will be given in the First Methodist Church, as usual.

Trouble Lasted Two Months. One Cake Cuticura Soap and Box Ointment Healed.

"Our little girl had eczema over her body. It started on the back of her neck in the form of a rash, and kept spreading until it got on her head. It got so bad that she could not rest at night from the itching and burning, and she would scratch so that the skin became inflamed. It caused her to be very cross and fretful.

"The trouble lasted about two months. After using one cake of Cuticura Soap with one box of Ointment she was healed." (Signed) Geo. Col-linson, 306 W. Winfield St., Morrison, Ill., August 8, 1917.

Why not use these fragrant, super-creamy emollients for every-day toilet and nursery purposes and prevent these distressing skin troubles.

Sample Each Free by Mail. Address: post-card, "Cuticura, Dept. E, Boston." Sold everywhere. Soap 25c. Ointment 50c and 75c.

NEW DRAFT CALLS ARE RECEIVED HERE

Despite an expected early peace, the war department is continuing to make draft calls. The Local Board has received an order to send 15 men to Camp Sherman during the three days period commencing November 22. A call was received earlier to send four men to Sherman and six men to Camp Wadsworth, the three day period commencing November 15. There have been reports to the effect that the November draft calls would be cancelled by Provost Marshal General Crowder, because there are now nearly 1,000,000 men under arms in this country and abroad.

The Class 1-A men from the September registration have been called for examination next Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

Preserving Spiders' Webs.

To order to preserve spiders' webs, naturalists employ an ingenious method. The webs are first sprayed from an atomizer with a thin solution of artist's shellac, and then, should they be of the ordinary geometric form, they are pressed carefully against a glass plate, the supporting strands at the same time being severed. After the shellac solution has dried the plates carrying the webs can be stored away in a cabinet.

"TIL BET THE GAS IS A LOT THICKER WAY UP WHERE YOU ARE," SAYS SHORTY

The extremes of the 108th Engineers, U. S. A.

"If you were in the aviation division you could keep one foot on the ground," the midget member of the 108th Engineers of the Second American army corps says sarcastically to the holder of the altitude record in the regiment. "Well, I don't need a ladder to get out of a trench," retorts the human bean pole. And so the bantering goes on. But the two are pals.

THEATERS

BIJOU.

A kidnapped bride on a compulsory honeymoon is the oddly amusing spectacle presented in Madge Kennedy's newest Goldwyn Picture, "Friend Husband," at the Bijou theater, Monday, November 11th. The little star has been several sorts of a bride in various screen plays, but this experience is new to her.

ORPHUM.

The Story: Jack Brandon, in love with Barbara Carlton, assumes the responsibility for the defalcations of Barbara's father, who is president of the bank in which Jack is employed. Branded as a thief, Jack flees and joins the Mounted Northwest Police. Chance brings Barbara across Jack's pathway, but she declines to recognize him. Later he saves her from a bigamous marriage into which she has been lured. Word is then received of her father's deathbed confession, exonerating Jack, so all ends happily.

BACK LIKE A BOARD? IT'S YOUR KIDNEYS

There's no use suffering from the awful agony of lame back. Don't wait till it "gasses off." It only comes back. Find the cause and stop it. Diseased conditions of the bladder or kidneys are usually indicated by stiff lame back, wrenching pains, lumbargia, urinating nervously, sleeplessness, tired, worn-out feeling, pain in the lower abdomen. These are nature's "signals" for help.

Here's the remedy. When you feel the first twinges of pain or experience any of these symptoms get busy at once. Go to your drugist and get a box of the pure, original GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules, imported fresh every month from the laboratories in Haarlem, Holland. Pleasant and easy to take, they almost instantly attack the poisonous germs that are clogging up your system and bring quick relief. For over two hundred years they have been helping the sick. Who don't try them? Sold everywhere by reliable druggists in sealed packages. Three sizes. Money back if they do not help you. Ask for "GOLD MEDAL" and be sure the name "GOLD MEDAL" is on the box.

UNITED WAR WORK DRIVE

Every Phase of Feminine Life to Have Representation.

Columbus, O. (Special).—Every phase of feminine life in Ohio is represented on the newly appointed Women's Advisory Council of the United War Work Campaign. Nineteen organizations touching the industrial, religious and social life of women of the Buckeye state, are represented in the council, which is organizing every woman in the state to back the drive the week of Nov. 11 to 18, when Ohio will raise $15,800,000 for the comfort and recreation of our soldiers overseas.

Miss Elizabeth Hyatt, director of women's work in the campaign, announced the appointment of the following state advisory council, with headquarters in Cleveland: Mrs. E. R. Grasselli, chairman; Mrs. Harry Vail, vice chairman; Mrs. Roger Perkins, representing suffrage; Mrs. Edward L. Harris, D. A. R.; Miss Myrtle Jones, Consumers' League; Mrs. Malcolm McBride, Council of National Defense; Mrs. C. S. Selover, Woman's Clubs; Miss Emma Perkins, Academic; Mrs. M. J. Gries, Jewish Welfare; Mrs. P. C. O'Brien, National Catholic War Council; Mrs. George Gilmore, Social Service; Mrs. Mary Stewart, Macabees; Mrs. J. A. Smith, Congress of Mothers; Mrs. Robert E. Lewis, War Mothers; Mrs. E. M. Spreng, Missionary Federation of Women; Mrs. Harry E. Davis, Colored Women; Miss Harriet Mason, Graces; Brigadier Van Der Shaw, Salvation Army; Mrs. W. W. Miller, Y. W. C. A.; Mrs. Helen Greene, W. C. T. U.

Not Originally Military Title.

General, the noun, and the adjective general, the antonym of particular, go back to the Latin generalis, meaning belonging to a race or kind, and itself tracing to genus general, from gignere, to beget. Generals in Caesar's and Pompey's day had nothing to do with the army; the Roman general was an imperator. The title general primarily means an officer holding a general command.

Brings the Best Into Co-operation
It is no wonder that many are finding the new medicinal combination, Hood's Serravallo before eating, Peptonin a Pills as needed, remarkably effective as a course of treatment for giving vitality, vigor and vim, and increasing strength and endurance.
Among the medicinal substances that this combination brings into co-operation are such elements, tonics and digestives as serravallo, mix, iron and protein whose great merit has been fully established.
Good results from such a combination, in cases amenable to treatment, can be among the "inevitables." The combination is especially recommended for those who are run-down, whose blood is poor, because of impurity or lack of iron, whose nerves are weak or unstrung, livers torpid or sluggish. Try it.

He says in a letter to his cousin, William Lewis, in speaking of this honor: "These French people have no color line; this cause and this country are worth fighting for."

Make a Fresh Start Now.
Never wait until tomorrow to make a fresh start or to turn over a new leaf. The time to begin again is when you feel dissatisfied with things as they are. Every postponement makes it easier to wait a little longer, and the reasons for putting off your fresh start one day are just as good for the next day's postponement. When you fall in the mud you do not think it necessary to lie prostrate for a certain number of minutes or hours. Instead you scramble to your feet and start over. ## Asked for Information.

A Macon clergyman, in order to test the accuracy of the bureau of information at the St. Louis Union station, asked a man in charge if he could tell him in which of the Bibles he could find Paul's Epistle to the Romans. It put the man of knowledge and his assistant up a stump, but they called in an old negro caretaker, who promptly answered that it was in the New Testament. The clergyman had asked the question of several other people standing about, but they were mystified. One declared he was not acquainted with Paul. The old negro said he had been a Baptist minister.—Macon (Ga.) Republican.

RECOGNIZE COUNTY PATRIOTISM WITH WAR SAVINGS STAMP BRONZE TABLET

COLUMBUS, O.—(Special.)—Twenty-seven Ohio counties already have earned the right to place the bronze "Recognition" tablet, of which the above is a reproduction, in a permanent position in their courthouses. These are the counties which have reached and passed the Treasury Department appointment of War Savings Stamps for this year. These tablets will be presented to the county by the Ohio War Savings Committee as testimony of the patriotism and sound business discernment of the people of that community, which resulted in an oversubscription of the War Savings Stamp quota. It is planned that the tablets be placed in an appropriate place in the courthouse, with proper ceremony.

In addition to the 27 counties already earning the tablet memorial, there are at least 20 more in a position to reach the goal within the next few weeks.

Two score counties are undertaking a "Shall-This-County-Fail" campaign. The results of such a "drive" are expected to insure reaching the year's War Savings Stamp quota. This campaign is being directed largely toward those people in the county who are able to buy from $500 to $1,000 in War Savings Stamps. During November the "limit" in War Savings Stamps can be purchased for $844. On Jan. 1, 1923, the government will pay the owner of these securities $1,000.

From War Department figures, the state W. S. S. Committee has computed that the state's 1918 quota of $100,000,000 in War Savings Stamps will equal and maintain for one year all of Ohio's 250,000 boys overseas. Statistics issued from Washington show the cost of so maintaining a soldier is $423.47.

The state committee points out that when an Ohioan buys $1,000 in War Savings Stamps at the November cost of $844, he is furnishing the government sufficient money with which to outfit and maintain two Buckeye fighters for a year of service abroad. Investment of $422 for $500 of War Savings Stamps will outfit one soldier.

BUDGET MAKERS RESENT CHARGE OF SCHOOL HEAD

Denying the charge of Superintendent of Schools John R. Patterson, that the county budget commission is responsible for the present financial condition of the city schools, members of the commission helped to make things lively at the Business Men's Club Friday night at the meeting called by the special committee chosen to investigate the matter.

Superintendent Patterson submitted to the original Business Men's Committee several weeks ago a detailed report of the school financial condition prepared from questionnaires sent to cities in Ohio comparable with Xenia. Printed copies of this report were sent to every member of the committee, which was recently enlarged from 20 to 100, and these copies were in their hands several days before the date set for the meeting.

Upon its face this report fixed the blame of the bad financial condition of the schools upon the budget commission. It was set forth that a reduction in the tax levy for the schools was made this year over that of last, in spite of the fact that the expenses of the schools had been increased, and that the county rate was increased at the expense of the schools and the city.

After setting forth detailed data the report continues: "The above tabular report shows that for the current year, necessary expenditures in the three items of teachers, janitors and coal, alone exceed the total receipts for the operating expenses a little over $9000. The Xenia Board of Education was never on its feet financially until the school years of 1915-16, and 1916-17. During these years there was enough difference between the receipts and cost of the three major items to take care of other running expenses. This condition did not obtain in 1916-17, and for 1918-19 the situation is an impossible one. Of course this difference is rooted in the cutting of the school rate from 5.20 and 5.30 for 1915-16, and 1916-17 respectively, to 4.60 and 4.50 for 1917-18 and 1918-19 respectively.

The report mentions the inauguration of the junior high school, and other innovations. "The present condition, it would seem, then, says the report, is rooted, not in the attempt to modernize the schools, but in the action of the county budget commission in cutting the school rate to a point where the schools cannot be financed."

Superintendent Patterson in presenting the matter before the committee Friday night, submitted his report as before given.

County Auditor A. E. Faulkner and Prosecuting Attorney Harry D. Smith, two of the three members of the Budget Commission, were present and denied the charge, made against the commission by Superintendent Patterson, given the reasons of the commission in fixing the various tax rates as it did.

Mr. Faulkner said that the tax rate for the last five years as set out by Mr. Patterson in his report, is misleading for the reason that it includes the interest and sinking fund for the county, city and schools, also a road levy of one mill for the county, which was above the ten mill limit. The question under discussion, he said, was regarding the money received by the county, city and schools for current expenses, eliminating the interest and sinking fund levy and all that came above the ten mill limit.

He said that the commission had been unjustly attacked, and gave a detailed statement of the way in which the commission had arrived at the amount to be given the county, city and schools, denying the charge that the county is running at the expense of the schools.

All the budgets presented to the commission, he said, were far in excess of the legal tax rate. The commission then eliminated the budgets, and considered the state, township, county, city and schools at the maximum rate they could be allowed, which totalled 13.6 mills. From that basis, the commission found that the schools were legally entitled to 3.67 mills for current expenses, but they were granted 3.70 mills, 30 in excess of their equitable portion.

He then in detail showed what amount the county receives, how the expenditures are made etc. Previously, he said, the schools had been receiving an excess levy at the expense of the city, but at this time the city officials appeared before the budget commission, and notified it that the water and electric light bill could no longer be paid from the interest and sinking fund, as had been done for several years, and that this amount must come from the current expenses, and that therefore the city must have its portion, regardless of the effect upon the schools.

The county rate is 4.35, including a one mill levy for roads which was above the ten mill limit, and 8 mills interest and sinking. The school levy is 3.70 with 80 interest and sinking and the city rate 2.60 with 3.50 for interest and sinking.

This year, he said, the schools are receiving for current expenses the same rate as last, with the tax duplicate increased $1,000,000 over last year, which gives them for current expenses $1,600 more than the last. The schools receive from the county and state about $50,000 with additions of over $4,000 from outside tuition and sale of books.

It is agreed that the wheat bread of the allies shall contain 20 per cent of other grains. It is only just that we should bear our share in this saving; our bread should be universal with those who are suffering from the war more grievously than we. Use Victory Mixed Flour in baking; eat other cereals also; save food in all ways for those who sit at the common table.

this, and cannot do so now before November 1919, too late for the 1919 school year.

J. W. Santmyer, who is clerk of the city interest, and sinking fund commission, came forward with a suggestion that the city interest and sinking fund could be reduced 4 of a mill, and give that to the schools. This would provide 6,000 additional to help tide the schools over, and help their credit.

It was finally decided that Chairman P. H. Flynn, of the special committee, appoint a committee of three to investigate a method of helping the school situation, and reporting to the general committee November 22.

YOUNG GIRL DIES OF TYPHOID FEVER AFTER LONG ILLNESS

After seven weeks' illness of typhoid fever, Helen Elizabeth Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Johnson, of 625 West Second street, died at 10:45 Friday night, at the Espey Hospital, where she had been a patient for a month. She died in the same room with her mother, who is a victim of the same malady, and who was taken to the hospital two weeks ago.

The young girl would have been 14 years of age next March 19. She is survived by her parents, two brothers and a sister, William, James, and Hallie, and three half brothers, who live in New Vienna.

The little girl was a member of the West End Church, and the funeral services will be held there Monday afternoon, at 2:30.

Friends may call at the Nagley funeral parlors on Greene street, Sunday from three to five o'clock, to view the remains.

Because of orders of the health officer, children under 14 years of age must not attend the funeral.

SUCCESSFUL CROPS DON'T NEED ALMANAC

A professor, Gilmore by name, who is a member of the faculty of a state college out in Oregon, has exploded a bomb shell in the camp of those persons who persist in doing all their planning "by the moon."

This pedagogue for a long time had scouted the moon theory, so in order to confound the followers of that cult, at spring he planted several acres of potatoes, violating every one of the "moon" rules that have been so carefully cherished and handed down from generation to generation.

Last month he harvested his crop, which averaged 365 bushels to the acre, giving him a net profit after all expenses were deducted, of about $350 an acre.

Instead of following the moon, this professor-farmer used scientific farming methods.

A capital idea. It is all right for the modern farmer to keep on friendly terms with the weather man, but he doesn't need an almanac.

SCORELESS TIE ENDS GAME WITH TROY HI SCHOOL

In a hard fought gridiron game Friday afternoon Xenia Hi and Troy Hi battled to a scoreless tie.

The game was the hottest contest of the season and both teams threatened repeatedly to score. Both teams played straight football, very little open field work being tried by either team. Xenia was the superior at the open game, working several forward passes, while Troy was content with one or two. The Blue and White outfit outplayed the Purple and White, but failed to score for several reasons.

After Xenia had held Troy down in the first quarter Hartsock circled end for about 25. On the next play the time keeper interfered with Stephens and this probably kept them from scoring for Troy got the ball on the four yard line. In the third quarter Stephens was removed when he showed a little tendency during an argument. This threw the team off its stride and as they were on a steady march it probably cost them a chance to score. Troy seemed to have a method of provoking the local players to fight for Owens was put out of the game a minute later on this charge, but none could truthfully say they saw him commit any offense.

Stephens was recalled, and the team again started on a march to the goal or it was halted by time.

Troy won the toss, and chose to defend the east goal. Currie kicked to the 15 yard line and Troy ran it back to the 40. Troy made first down on four plays. Xenia held for downs. Hartsock made 4 and then circled end for 25 yards. Hartsock caught a pass. Tullis made first down and repeated.

Currie made first down. Xenia had but an 10 yard line but failed to score owing to a fumble. Troy punted but recovered. They were again forced to punt. Xenia was penalized five yards and 30 yards more when Stephens held. The quarter ended at this stage. The 5th changed hands several times during the second quarter but neither team gained any advantage.

In the third quarter after several exchanges of punts Hartsock made 30 yard around end. Stephens was removed. Ball went to center and Vannorsdall to quarter. The quarter ended a minute later. Troy punted and Owens was put out of the game. Stephens returned to quarter, Vannorsdall to center and Ball to end. Snodgrass caught a pass. Troy intercepted pass. Troy punted over goal. Xenia punted. Troy tried a drop kick from the 25 yard line but it failed. Xenia bucked the ball down the field for about 40 yards. "Yank" caught a long pass but could not get loose. The game ended a minute later.

Hartsock played a fine offensive game for Xenia circling end several times for long runs. Owens at end on the defensive was a terror to Troy. Time after time he came through and caught the man before he reached the line of scrimmage. Snodgrass at the other end, Eyler at tackle and Beals all played good ball. Ball making his initial appearance made a good impression by his work at center and on Stephens, Tullis, Currie, Vannorsdall, Satterfield and Riddell all played consistent football in their respective positions. Fish was the best performer for Troy. The lineup and summary:

Xenia	Pos	Troy
Snodgrass	End	Johnson
Eyler	Tackle	Jackson
Satterfield	Guard	Shaffer
Vannorsdall	Center	Shepherd
Beals	Line	Routson
Riddell	Line	Doll
Owens	Line	Harrison
Currie	Line	Conley
Hartsock	Line	May
Tullis	Line	Smith
Currie	Line	Fish

Substitutions—Vannorsdall to Stephens, Ball for Vannorsdall, Stephens for Vannorsdall, Vannorsdall for Ball, Ball for Owens.

Referee—McGraw of Dayton. Umpire—Harrison of Hamilton. Head linesman—Kneisley. Timekeepers—Hyman Homberger. Time of quarters 10 minutes.

LUCIE'S FIRST AID

By AGNES G. BROGAN.

(Copyright, 1918, Western Newspaper Union.)

Aunt Lucinda has always impressed upon my sister and me, the fact that in order to appear as desirable wives in the eyes of worth-while young men, we must be good housekeepers, capable and careful. To this purpose we have been trained; but while Aunt and I still remain perfect unmarried housekeepers, Lucie's romance has quite another ending.

Certainly it was not her capability which attracted to her the man who was to be her husband. But as usual, I am starting my story end first, and telling things which later—happened.

The beginning was one cloudy morning when Lucie, who will not be called Aunt's full name, started down town for a shopping tour. She looked very pretty as I walked with her as far as the car, and she was not as sensibly attired as Aunt would have wished her to be for the occasion.

When she had seated herself and waved to me from the car window, I went back to my baking, and I was haunted by the picture of a khaki-clad soldier who had moved down on the long seat to make room for Lucie. His face was so ghastly pale, and his big eyes so darkly ringed, that I was sure he had just returned broken in health from over seas. Also, in my interested look through the window, I noticed that the soldier's arm was suspended in a sling. And strangely enough, when my sister returned all aglow at evening, it was of this young man that she talked, dimpling and smiling the while, and of his part in her day's adventure.

For it seemed that as she neared the downtown district, Lucie, with one of her impulses, decided to stay on the car instead, and ride over to the West side, to visit a friend. And just as she was about to leave the car, down came a heavy shower. Lucie was glad to know that she had brought an umbrella, and she snatched it up pushing through the crowd to the door. As she descended the steps, she was aware of the injured soldier close behind her, and suddenly another impulse seized my sister. He was such a frail van-looking fellow for all of his brave clear eyes, that Lucie said she feared he might take pneumonia in that soaking rain, and she moved over quickly and offered him the shelter of her umbrella.

He smiled a little, Lucie said, assuring her of his gratitude, but his home was too far from the car line for him to impose upon her offer. As the length of the walk he must take only made her duty more necessary, Lucie started cheerfully along at his side, with the umbrella held well over the soldier's bandaged arm. And as they swung down the avenue, he told her many interesting tales of war, and though the wounded man carefully omitted the personal from his stories, Lucie was sure that he had played a heroic part in them all.

His arm would soon be all right, he said, but the doctor had warned him that returning strength must come slowly. So he had to be patient—he must be patient, even if they refused to let him go back to fight the Hun. And most delightfully at the end of their walk together, they found a little old lady waiting upon the porch of a trim white house, to welcome back her son.

Lucie was urged to come in and dry her damp clothes before the grate fire. Homer, was the name of her hero, and Lucie found it easily in the phone book. Though Mrs. Homer answered, her son added to the message, "If Miss Graythorne would give her address," he said, "he would be glad to return the umbrella in the morning."

True to his promise, on the following morning, Mr. Jack Homer arrived at our door, a black silk umbrella in his hand, and I neither saw Lucie after his entrance, nor did she call me into the room, though the murmuring of their voices and low laughter, came to me as I methodically continued my ironing.

The romance unfolded so quickly that aunt and I were bewildered over succeeding events. When the weather was considered unfavorable for Jack's visits, Lucie continued what she termed her own "Red Cross work," by cheering the invalid at the home of his mother; and his evident progress in health paid due tribute to her faithfulness.

It was when we were making plans together for the wedding that Lucie said tenderly:

"I shall always keep that umbrella, Jack, as a reminder of the wonderful way it brought us together."

"You may," her beloved agreed.

"I may?" Lucie repeated questioningly.

Jack nodded. "You see," he explained, "it is really my own umbrella, Lucie. When you first snatched it up from beside me on the car seat, I did not quite understand—even thought, that your offer to take me home under its protection, was made because of a rebuking conscience. But as we walked together dear, I blessed your mistake, and I'm blessing it yet."

The shocked incredulity of my sister's face made us all laugh.

"I recall now," I said, "that you had no umbrella, Lucie, as you stepped on to the car."

And that is why my faith in aunt's theory of impressing a future husband, is faltering.

7% NON-TAXABLE IN OHIO The Walkill Stock Farms Co. Full Participating Preferred Stock

Subject to prior sale we present the final offering of the 7%, non-taxable in Ohio, full PARTICIPATING PREFERRED Stock of The Walkill Stock Farms Company.

The first consideration in any investment should be Safety, and land utilized for the production of cattle, hogs and sheep was not only safe for your grandfather and yourself, but will be safe for your grandchildren.

The Walkill Stock Farm contains fourteen thousand acres, in a solid body, of good land, all under hog-tight wire fence, there being eighty-three miles of outside and field fencing; over fifteen hundred acres are under cultivation, and the balance in pasture.

The farm is crossed by one of the best railway systems in the United States with two shipping stations on the farm, and these stations are only thirty miles distant from a big Armour Packing Plant.

Chicago prices, with practically no shrinkage caused by long shipping, are secured for the livestock products of this farm.

The land on Walkill Farm produces corn, velvet beans, hay and other forage crops for the cattle, hogs and sheep.

Why This Is Safe

The Preferred Stock issued on this big farm is only $400,000, a little less than $30.00 an acre, and this covers farm and improvements; and no bonds or mortgages can be placed ahead of the preferred stock without the consent of the preferred stockholders. All incorporation proceedings have been under the direction of the well known legal firm of Burkhardt, Heald & Pickrell, Dayton, Ohio; and all title approvals by Richard Sassanet, Abstractor, Jacksonville, Fla.; George F. Osler, Cincinnati, Ohio, and O. O. McCollum, Attorney, Jacksonville, Fla.

It is not enough that assets behind a preferred stock issue be safe at the time of issue without regard to the future. The assets behind preferred stock should constantly increase in value and add to the safety of the preferred issue.

Preferred Stock That Is Participating

There are few men who read who are not cognizant of the fact that the eyes of the nation are upon the South as a coming livestock producing section of the United States.

The Breggers' Gazette in many issues in the last year, the United States Government in numerous bulletins and The Country Gentleman, published by the same reliable company that publishes The Saturday Evening Post and Ladies' Home Journal, of October 20th and November 2nd have called attention in detail to the revolutionary change that has come in cattle and hog production in the South.

The Walkill Preferred Stock stipulates that 7% first be paid to the Preferred Stockholders and then 7% to the Common Stockholders and after that any other dividends paid must be divided equally between the Preferred and Common Stockholders.

To earn the Preferred Stock Dividend requires an earning of only $2.00 an acre; and on both the Preferred and Common requires only an earning of $3.60 an acre, and anyone versed in farm operation today knows that this is a very light requirement and that the farm that cannot earn from twelve to fifteen dollars an acre is a very poor farm or very badly managed.

There is only one way to get the largest profit that will be realized from this revolutionary livestock development, and that is through a Participating Preferred Stock that will give the holder a constant dividend and a further share in the profit.

Space will not permit further presentation of a situation that has come from a ten to twelve-month pasture season, or the ability to grow crops the year around; or the increase in farrowings because of no ice or snow, or the plentiful supply of good labor at a reasonable cost. We will be pleased to present these facts to any one interested.

Only a cattle man or a hog man would realize what it would mean and what it does mean on Walkill Farm to have five artesian wells that throw the water 22 feet in the air and make it possible to supply cattle feeding lots, farrowing houses and finishing pens with abundant, pure water without pumps or any other than natural pressure.

Walkill Farms has a number of running streams and in addition has the advantage of water from these wells.

In brief, Walkill Farm answers the requirements of the model stock farm of today. It is big enough to make it possible to afford good management: A $1,500-a-year hog man looking after a 3,000-a-year hog production is far cheaper than a cheap man looking after 100 hogs a year. It is fertile, productive land, well drained, yet well supplied with water. It has ideal shipping and railroad conditions. It has the two elements necessary for an exceptional investment—SAFETY and PROFIT.

Your Opportunity In the Final Offering of this High Class Security.

Three-fourths of this Preferred Stock has been absorbed by Ohio men—Ohio farmers and business men.

The remainder of the issue of Preferred Stock will be quickly absorbed in response to this final announcement offering.

This is a patriotic investment and has been passed by the Capital Issues Committee of the United States Government at Washington as "not incompatible with the National Interest."

Beef, Pork and Butlets are very closely associated. To the man who wants to get rich over night this will not be of interest, but the thinking man who wants a Safe Investment, a steady income and a further share in profits of operation and increase in land value will be interested.

Full particulars will be sent upon request.
